Dear Mr. Vizetelly:

General Walter Bedell Smith, Director of Central Intelligence, has asked me to acknowledge receipt of your letter of October 8, 1952, enclosing tear sheet from the International Year Book, and to advise you that the information regarding the Central Intelligence Agency as it appears on pages 100 and 101 should be unchanged in your next issue.

General Smith asks me to thank you for your inquiry.

Very truly yours,

Stanley J. Orogan
Assistant to the Director
